

The Key to the Situation

in many a business transaction held by the bank. If your relations with your bank are such that you can command the aid at the critical time you are more likely to succeed in your enterprises.

THE

MONROE CITY BANK

points out that the two most necessary factors of bank credit are being a regular and satisfactory depositor and becoming well known at the bank.

A bank is not of much assistance unless you can get money when it is scarce. Try the MONROE CITY BANK with its Capital and Surplus of $100,000.00.

What the Missouri

Editors Are Saying

The Censor Wins the Fight.

The battle is not always to the strong. It is more often to the censor.—Kansas City Times.

Would Say Double Distilled Hell.

We wonder what Gen. Sherman would have called it if he had lived until today.—Albany Ledger.

Italy Will Not Rock.

Italy sits tight, probably thinking that there are enough already to rock the boat.—Kansas City Times.

Would Prove Drawing Cards.

For the next chautauqua season, Gen. Joffre, Kaiser Wilhelm and Count Okuma would draw well.—Linneus Bulletin.

Senator Reed and the Trusts.

Senator Reed must have been right. The International Harvester Trust is out in a long and laborious defense of its man Jones.—Clayton Argus.

Where Rau Can Get 'Em.

If Rudolph Rau really wants more animals for Krug Park, why don't he come out here, we have a few skunks and goats to spare which he can have merely for the asking.—Clarksdale Journal.

That War in Europe.

Even the dogs are fighting over in Europe. At least we notice that a British warship captured a German bark.—Louisiana Press-Journal

Missouri Has Some Corn.

Notwithstanding the serious drouth in Missouri this summer, it is estimated her corn yield this year will be 175,000,000 bushels, and the most pessimistic kicker will have to admit that is some corn.—Albany Ledger.

Why This Disference?

An Ozark county man charged with hog stealing was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years. A Howell county murderer got two years for killing a man with his fist. Why this difference? Howell County Gazette

Too Bad for Teddy.

It is shameful that just as Teddy was getting ready to leave the Republican party and make a grand "coup d'etat" with a sashey to the right and a molinet to the left and whoop up things, in steps Kaiser Wilhelm and pushes Teddy off the stage and the front pages of the newspapers.—Platte County Landmark Kicked the Colored Brother Out.

The negro in Texas is practically a man without a party. He has never been a Democrat and recently was kicked out of the Republican party and now the Bull Moosers have adopted a platform with a plank in it which reads: "The Progressive party of Texas shall be officered, controlled and governed by whites exclusively."—Weston Chronicle.

The Services of Teddy Teethodore.

Clinton County Progressives will follow "Teddy" and fear no danger. All must admit that Theodore Roosevelt has distinguished himself in war and out of war. For instance at San Juan Hill and at Chicago.—Clinton County Democrat.

And This Is "Poor Old Missouri."

Just think of it. Only 66 out of the 114 counties in Missouri nominated no candidates for representative on the standpat ticket in the August primaries. And the g. o. p. has for years been shouting "Poor Old Missouri."—Howell County Gazette.

A Real Diplomat at Hopkins.

There is a man in Hopkins who is said to be a diplomat as well as a financier. He gives his wife a quarter every time she refuses to buy from an agent. He estimates that he saved $7.50 last week, after the commissions were paid.—Hopkins Journal.

Stone Carried All of Them.

Neither Wallace nor Dawson carried a county in the state for United States senator. Wm. J. Stone's majority over Wallace was 132,452 and 164,744 over Dawson. Stone carried every county in the state and will be triumphantly elected in November.—Memphis Democrat.

"It Don't Pay to Advertise."

It does not pay to advertise. Sears-Roebuck & Co., only set about a ton of their literature into Fairfax Tuesday in the way of catalogues, each of which cost 9 cents for mailing besides the cost of printing and of course they expect no returns. They just do it for pleasure as they love to give the farmers nice pictures to look at and something to read at their leisure.—Fairfax Forum.

Every County Has More Democrats

Nearly every county in the state reported an increased Democratic vote at the primary election on Tuesday of last week. This is a good indication that the party is once more thoroughly united and that the entire state ticket will be elected in November by one of the old-time majorities.—Harrisonville Democrat.

All Skeletons Are Not Locked Up

We have been taught to believe ever since childhood that in every family (whether good, bad or indifferent) a skeleton is locked up in a closet. In these later days of tight and split silky and other transparent skirts, we are skeptical about the old "closet story." The "family skeleton part is all right," but they certainly are not all locked up.—Milan Standard.

Tired of Being Republican Tools.

Yes, brother, the nego is going to vote the Democratic ticket next November, and forever after; not only in Milan, but all over the United States. They have been used as chattels by the Republican party for the last time. Their eyes have suddenly become opened, and talk "back to slavery if the Democrats win," is (like every other past Republican campaign issue) as dead as a knut. Poor old decrepit, scar-seared elephant. Milan Standard.

But Now Democrats Control.

In the good old days that the Stand-patters love to talk about, whenever the country needed extra money to move the crops, the Republican secretary of the treasury would dump all the required cash into Wall Street and then Wall Street would lend it out on interest to the country banks. Such a difference now when Secretary McAdoo is putting out $34,000,000 of government money right where it is needed.—Henry County Democrat.

But Wilson Was Equal.

No president of the United States ever had a more complicated set of problems thrust upon him in the first year of his administration than has President Wilson. It is a matter of pride not only to his Democratic supporters but to patriotic Americans of every party that Mr. Wilson has squarely met and dealt with every contingency in a manner which has reflected glory upon American institutions.—Linneus Bulletin.

Shipping Sugar From Rock Port.

As a result of the war, we were about to say, but really believe as a result of a "corner," a large supply of sugar has actually been shipped out of Rock Port. Wholesale firms that had it shipped here by the carload, in barrels, storing what they did not sell, shipped it out again last week, notwithstanding that our merchants needed it and wanted it. Seeing dray loads of sugar shipped out of Rock Port was a sight that attracted much attention and created quite a lot of comment. What is the justification of doubling the price on sugar, beans and other commodities and raising the price of flour? We have as much of it as ever in the country.—Atchison County Mail.

Sultzman's Hannibal Bread.—Christian's.

Memoirs of Napoleon

In Three Volumes

The personal reminiscences of Baron de Méneval, for thirteen years private secretary to Napoleon Bonaparte, bring out, as no history can, many enlightening and interesting side lights on the character of that greatest of leaders. De Méneval's descriptions have the piquancy and interest possible only because he was an actual eyewitness of the scenes and incidents of which he writes. Their reliability and historical interest can be judged by the fact that the very conservative French Academy publicly recommends them.
